

The following question is addressed in the article on "How to Take Effective Class Notes:"

~~19~~ List two proper techniques for reviewing your lecture notes.

The following question is addressed in the article called "How to Keep Up with a College Reading Load:"

~~11~~ What is the "biggest study skills mistakes that students make?"

The following question is addressed in the article called "College Paper Deadlines:"

~~12~~ Other than the prospect of getting a reduced grade on your paper, why are deadlines so important?

The following question is addressed in the article called "Avoiding Plagiarism:"

~~13~~ List three good reasons why you should write your own papers.

~~14~~ The following questions are addressed in the Chapters One Thru Five in the Psychology of Spending:

for Material cause

14. The longer you stay in a store:

- ☐ The more likely you are to make an impulse purchase
- ☐ The less likely you are to make an impulse purchase
- ☐ Has no affect on the likelihood you will make an impulse purchase

15. Buying something on sale is:

- ☐ Always a good cost-saving measure
- ☐ Only beneficial if you were planning to buy it anyway
- ☐ Only beneficial for food or another necessity

16. If you like to shop when you are depressed, it is a good idea to:

- ☐ Cut up your credit cards
- ☐ Replace shopping with mood-boosting activities that are free
- ☐ Take a friend with you when you go to the mall

17. People tend to spend less when they use a:

- ☐ Credit card
- ☐ Gift card
- ☐ Debit card or cash