

Dillard's
Nordstrom

2.

Find at least two articles, again using the internet, that discuss the current situation in this industry or that present information about your companies. Summarize the main points of these articles. Describe the industry and its outlook and summarize the company's future plans based on your research and on reading the annual report.

3.

Look up both companies' stock price and record them each day for a week. On what stock exchange are

What are their ticker symbols?